Summer's Creeping Up—Fine, Cool Clothes Abundantly Ready Here

Every woman wants the best for her money, and every good store endeavors to give her the best, to do its best.

But some bests are better than others.

This store has sold women's clothes longer than any other—it knows more about than most stores.

It can give better fashion, better fabric, better fit, better workmanship, better value.

It can give the very best to be had and at lower prices than most stores.

Summer stocks completely ready.

FINE ASPARAGUS

Is Raised by John C. Johnson on His Farm at Bridgeport.

The Telegram acknowledges receipt of sample bunches of asparagus raised by John C. Johnson on his farm at Bridgeport. Mr. Johnson makes a specialty of asparagus and for years has been supplying the community with it in season. It is famous for its excellence. The stalks are large, tender and succulent and they make a most savory and palatable dish. Martin Broth-

How Mrs. Harrod Got Rid of Her Stomach Trouble.

"I suffered with stomach trouble for years and tried everything I heard of, but the only relief I got was temporary until last spring I saw Chamberlain's Tablets advertised and procured a bottle of them at our drug store. I got immediate relief from that dreadful heaviness after eating and from pain in the stomach," writes Mrs. Linda Harrod, Fort Wayne, Ind. Obtainable everywhere.—Advertisement.

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

Sardine Rarebit.

Melt two tablespoons butter, add one-half pound of fresh cheese, grated or broken into bits; stir constantly while it melts; then add gradually the beaten yolk of an egg, diluted with two-thirds cup of cream or milk; stir until smooth and slightly thickened; season with a scant half a teaspoon of paprika, one-quarter teaspoon salt and few drops tobacco sauce; have ready box of sardines, drained, broiled carefully and laid on the untoasted side of bread, toasted on one side only; pour the rarebit over the sardines and serve at once on hot plates.
